The Rose

*A special rose stood all alone
surrounded by a wall,
of stone.
Around the wall were roses,
too.
Still neither knew the other grew.*

*So often we, like flowers, dwell to deep within our human shell and pass through life “not understanding” nor making all the friends
we should.*

Tony Pettito

*Archbishop Williams High School
80 Independence Avenue
Braintree, Massachusetts 02184*

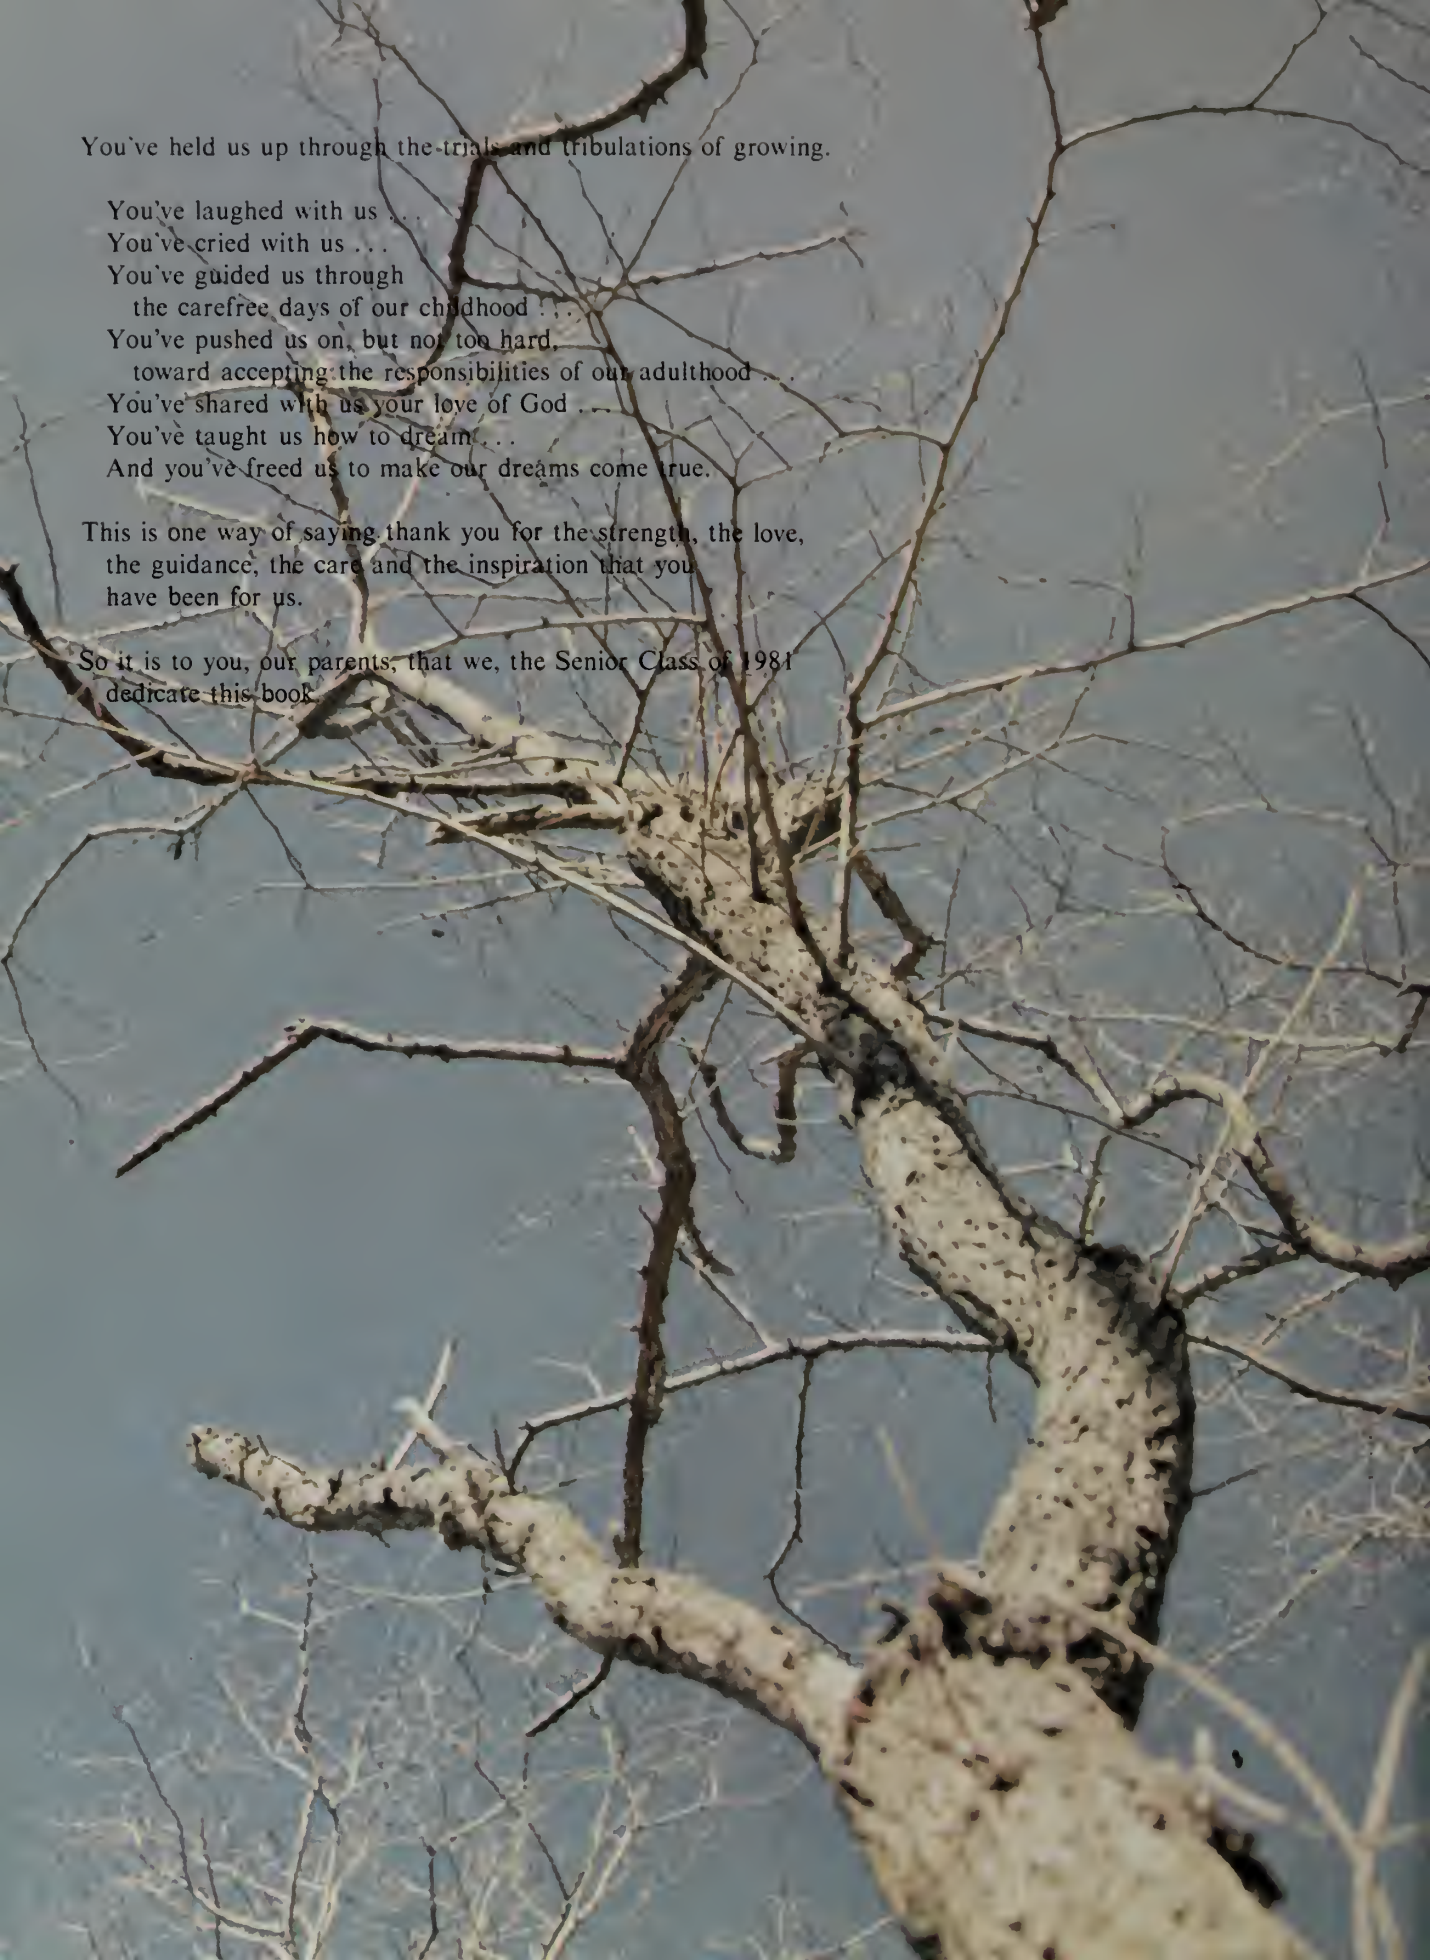

*Is this the end or just the beginning?
In the beginning we were young, naive and curious, striving for the top with many goals in mind. As freshmen we dared to dream what we could be as seniors. Each day brought about new experiences and changes.*

*Later we gained spirit and pride for ourselves. We formed new ideas yet keeping some of the old ones. We were growing with everyone but growing alone inside too. We held on to childhood with one hand but reached for adulthood with another.
We were becoming the true selves we wished to be.*

Today there is a new dimension to look at, a new perspective. We are again wishing on a cloud, searching for a purpose and finding the answer within. We are looking up, looking forward and looking back.

*Our dreams are in the open air like a mountain in the sky. Dream on!
Reach out! Now let us lift ourselves up . . . high enough to see beyond the mountains.*

*The Senior Class
— 1981—*

You've held us up through the trials and tribulations of growing.

You've laughed with us . . .

You've cried with us . . .

You've guided us through the carefree days of our childhood . . .

You've pushed us on, but not too hard, toward accepting the responsibilities of our adulthood . . .

You've shared with us your love of God . . .

You've taught us how to dream . . .

And you've freed us to make our dreams come true.

This is one way of saying thank you for the strength, the love, the guidance, the care and the inspiration that you have been for us.

So it is to you, our parents, that we, the Senior Class of 1981 dedicate this book.

Faculty...

*Rev. John J. Pallard, O.M.I.
Principal*

The Senior Class of 1981 would like to acknowledge the dedicated work Father Pallard has accomplished in one year.

You have put many long hours working to make solutions agreeable to all. With the help of Sister Blanche, Archbishop Williams is a school to be proud of and respected by all.

We, the seniors, want to thank you Father Pallard and Sister Blanche for all you have done for the Class of 1981. We wish you all the best in the years to follow.

*Don't be dismayed at good-byes.
A farewell is necessary before you can meet again.
And meeting
again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.*

Activities...

Brewster . . . making friends silence . . . The Rose beauty . . . tears . . . supercapes
 Sharon . . . memories

What is so special about a weekend retreat? Sometimes it is hard to explain the feelings that one has on a retreat. It is a sharing of feelings and emotions with a special group of people. It is a caring for each other and discovering the inner beauty of one's self. It is a time when tears are shed over a sad song or a hug is exchanged after an open talk with a friend. It is a place where one can be alone to look for the answers to one's problems. All past ordeals and differences are forgotten or resolved. Nobody puts on airs, everyone is his or her own beautiful self and is loved for that fact. A retreat is a search to find out more about life and discover how much each unique individual has to offer to this world.

The Homecoming . . .
spirit of togetherness . . .
excitement . . .

The six girls Michelle Daly, Julie Howley, Christine Magner, Mary McBride, Marcia Ryan, and Anne Schiffmann were chosen by us, the senior class, to be candidates for the 1981 Homecoming because of their unique qualities and their involvement in our school. Each girl is special, and each one was a winner in this time honored tradition.

Pictured in the center of the opposite page is each of the Homecoming candidates, their escorts and the 1980 Queen and her escort. They are, from left to right, Anne Schiffmann, John Rielly, Marcia Ryan, Felix Tenaglia, Julie Howley, Brian Radzik, James Macozek, Anne Macozek (1980 Queen), Timothy Entwistle, Christine Magner, Mark Kintigos, Mary McBride, Michael Rowell, Michelle Daly.

Michelle was chosen as the 1981 Homecoming Queen, and is being congratulated here by Anne Macozek, last year's queen.

Chorus . . . Sister Corona . . .

Hallelujah Chorus . . .

The activity here at Williams which draws the greatest participation, both in spirit and in number is Chorus. Membership is open to any and all students in the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. One of the highlights of the year for this group is the annual Christmas Concert. Under the direction of Sister Corona, the 244 member chorus performed for family and friends on December 14, 1980, each class expressing its own talents, gifts and good wishes to all.

Listed here are the Senior members of Chorus:

The 1980 Football Team had an undefeated season which will always be remembered at Archies. The team was led to victory by the dedicated coaching of Joseph Crowley, whose first year here at Archies produced an exciting season. Their remarkable score of 9-1-0 is something of which we can all be proud. The tricaptains Joseph Cerilli, Michael Rowell and Kevin Howlett made the team what it was because of their experience with victory. The seniors of 1980 were also "The Undefeated and Unscored upon Freshmen of 1977." Over the years at Archbishop Williams these player's dreams have been fulfilled and challenges have been overcome.

The players are: Kevin Howlett 33, Michael Rowell 3, Joseph Cerilli 11, Humphrey Marr 21, Dan McMorow 22, Warren Madden 26, Bill Murphy 27, Chris Papile 30, John Rielly 61, Tim Haley 63, Peter Fitzgerald 71, Scott Gillis 73, Steve Rullis 74, Steve Walsh 76, Dave Johnson 82, Scott Riley 84 and John Sullivan 86.

On a cold afternoon in November the senior class was defeated by the junior class in turned out to be a success although the junior class won 20-0. Each team put in many hours of learning plays and getting in shape for the closeness shared between each player. The excellent coaches of the junior and senior class helped to make the team perform with coordination and good sportsmanship. The highlight of the day was the spirited and enthusiastic male cheerleaders. Anyone who participated or watched the flag football game can be proud of the performances. All will remember the fun and exciting day of Flag Football 1980 for years to come.

The Senior players are:

Every season the outstanding coaching of Bob Barrett molds Archbishop Williams varsity basketball team into a prominent group of players. The cocaptains Dean Coletti and Mark McCabe strive for perfection with every game. Their talent and knowledge for the game encourages the whole team to put out one-hundred percent on the court. Each varsity player has his own unique approach to playing basketball. All learn from one another; striving to make each game a success. Archbishop Williams is proud to have an outstanding group of players. Their talents shown at the games encourage underclasspeople to excell in this sport and form their own ways of making their dreams come true.

The players are: Mark McCabe 32, Dean Coletti 11, Brian Radzik 10, Tom Fishbaugh 20, Tony Falco 24, Bob Mullaney 25, Bill McBirney 31, Bill Nawn 21, Chris Canniff 23, John Wilson 30, Joseph DiBiasi 15, Chris Papile 22, Mark Fishbaugh 14.

The 1981 Girls Varsity Basketball Team is a group of devoted young women. Many hours of constant practice are put in by the team under the experienced coaching of Tom Burke. The girls are a close knit group striving for excellence and victory. All the members are willing to follow the directions of captain, Heather McNnis, to make a game worthwhile. Whether the team is winning or losing, top performances are the key factors to an exciting game. Determination and stamina are two important qualities that each player has developed. These qualities demonstrated are the stepping stones for people who want to make their dreams in life come true.

The players are: Heather McNnis 32, Maryanne Moriarty 30 and Cathy Mahoney 10. Juniors: Virginia Gaffey 42, Marguerite Haugh 14 and Marie Vaughn 34. Sophomores: Carol Greene 15, Janice Glavin 12, Mary Kate McConville 24 and Diane Vaughn 35.

The 1981 Varsity Hockey at Archies is a team with quality and potential. Their performance at each game demonstrates a strong desire for victory while maintaining a fair and exciting game. On the ice there is a sense of faith and pride that each player feels for the other. The winning combination of captain, Gerard Dunne and his teammates is seen at every game as they put forth superior effort. Speed and accuracy are the major factors in order for quality performances. Coach, Frank Quinn has guided his team to play with full force and concentration for the game. Hockey requires a player to face reality and reach his own goals.

The players are:

Mike Rowell 3, Karl Nord 8, Kevin McCarthy 9, Tim Entwistle 10, Jim Pascarelli 11, David Livingston 16, Stephen Quinn 17, Gerard Dunne 18, Bob Zanardelli 22, and Tim Marshall 30. Bob Reynolds 2, Bob Devereaux 4, Don McDonough 5, Jim Macozek 6, Mike Tardanico 7, Richard Igo 12, Dennis Furtado 14, Scott Marshall 15, Kevin Chase 19, Ed Currie 21

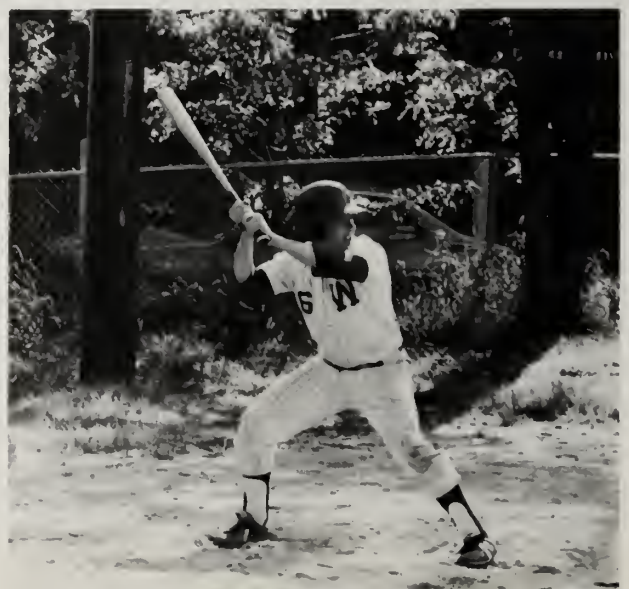

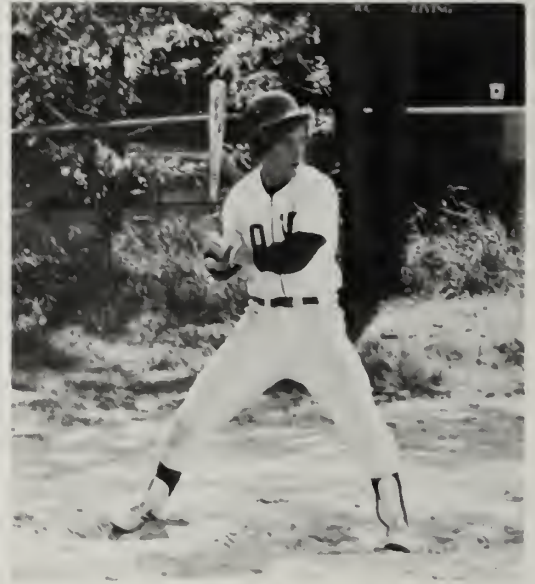

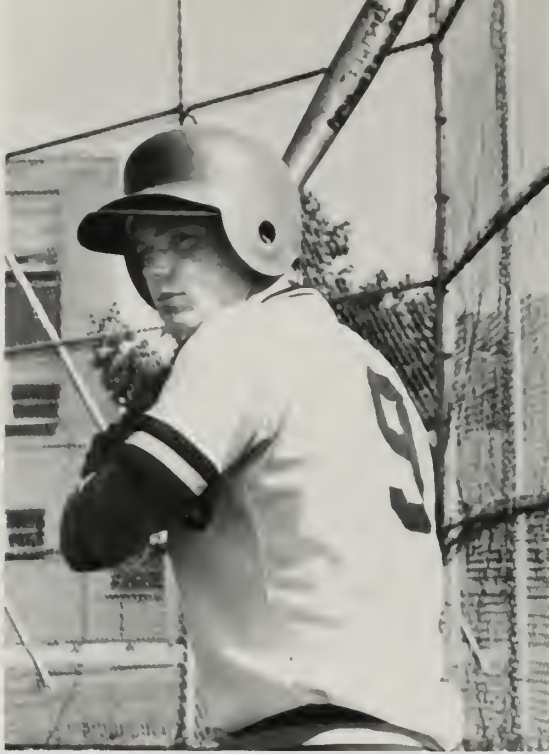

Excitement, pride, spirit, closeness and hope are just some of the feelings that Archies cheerleaders have in their hearts. They put everything into a game to make it the best and most exciting for all. Their performance makes all students and parents feel proud to see Archbishop Williams competing. Our cheerleaders add power and energy to a game, helping to make every game triumphant and victorious. Their faith in a game is a symbol to all that life is a challenge and to make our dreams come true, we must meet that challenge.

Football cheerleaders: Karen Carrabes, Judy Carroll, Anne Schiffmann, Theresa Sullivan, Nancy Cleary, Mary McBride, Meg Croke, Christine Magner, Jackie Chevalier, Marybeth Curtis, and Cati Finnegan.

Basketball cheerleaders: Joan Forbes, Judy Carroll, Anne Schiffmann, Theresa Sullivan, Karen Shaw, Patti Novak, Ronna Campanelli, Maureen Bowler, Lynne Collins, and Mary McBride.

Hockey cheerleaders: Bernice Chevalier, Karen Carrabes, Deanna Galante, Cati Finnegan, Joyce Noonan, Bette DiCristofaro, Christine Magner, Meg Croke, Lori Schuman and Jackie Chevalier.

Speed, determination and stamina are the key factors to a victorious baseball season at Williams. All can be congratulated for the great performances at each game. In order for victory each individual must have a strong knowledge and concentration for the game. Most players are experienced and prepared for competition. Each player has his own talent, but each combines to make the team superior to any other school. Archbishop Williams along with coach Connie Carlozzi are proud to have an outstanding group of players. Their competitive performance at each game will enable these players in later years to reach their goals in life.

Many girls at Williams participate in girls softball. Each spring, players begin to look forward to an enjoyable and fun season. The softball coach, Maureen Maher, has a close relationship with her players. Each girl's talent is revealed at the games. The girls try to promise a worthwhile game for all to see. After school, the team practices many hot sunny days at Adams Field in Braintree. Skill and energy are only two qualities that Williams softball team has. A close group of friends is made each year which makes the season more memorable, and encourages these girls to reach for their goals in life.

Jackie Glavin and Donna Manley, cocaptains of the 1980 girls varsity volleyball team, led the team to a fun and exciting season. Determination, talent and experience were the key factors to the great performances at each game. Many hours of constant practice was enforced by coach Kathy Forry to make the team powerful and alive. Although their final record was 1-15-0 the girls had an enjoyable season. These player's dreams of victory did not appear this season but there will be other times when victory will appear in their lives and in the lives of the people that they have touched.

Whether it is sunny or rainy, there are always dedicated runners staying in shape for this sport. Top physical condition and determination are needed to be on the track teams at Williams. Daily practices under the direction of coaches Art Svenson and Gary Emond keep the team up to potential. Track is one way of demonstrating one's own ability at a meet or on a deserted road. The many aspects of track such as hurdles, shot put and long distance running leave room for each individual to be a winner in his or her own field.

Senior runners for Cross Country are; Boy's Captain Shawn O'Connell, Bill Stafford, Bob Mullaney, and Girl's Captain Dawn Griffin.

Winter — Boy's Tri-Captains Bob DiMarino, Shawn O'Connell, and John Sullivan; Scott Collins, Tom McHugh, Bill Stafford, Tony Talacci. Girls Co-captains Dawn Griffin and Julie Howley; and Maureen Flaherty.

Spring — Boys; Scott Collins, Bob DiMarino, Peter Fitzgerald, Mark McCabe, Dan McMorrow, Bob Mullaney, Bill Murphy, Shawn O'Connell, Bill O'Neil, Chris Papile, Bill Stafford, John Sullivan, and Tony Talacci. Girls; Mary Flaherty, Dawn Griffin, Christine Magner, Anne Schiffmann, and Caroline Tobin.

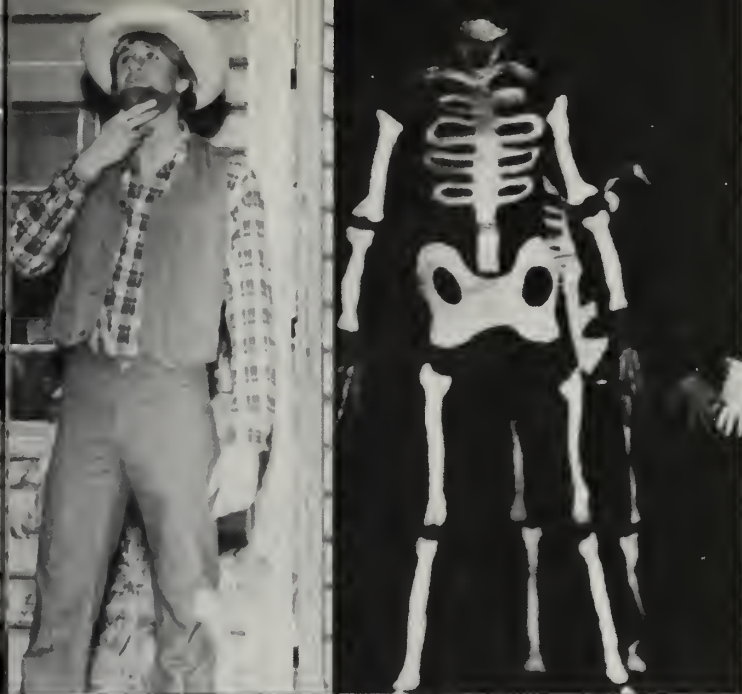

The players on the tennis team at Williams play with talent and experience. The players are gifted with skills such as speed and endurance, and these added to hours of practice enables a player to perform to his or her potential. Both coaches Bill Gardener and Carol Ofria guide these players to put everything into a game in order to quality playing. The competition that these players face at Archies is just a stepping stone to greater things in life and making their dreams come true.

The players are: Marcy Cunniff, Tricia Furlan, Laurie Shea, Dana Loeb, Denise Fitzgibbon, Laura Maclean, Steve Burns, Tom McHugh, Warren Madden, and Bryan Flynn.

Time on the green and a sense of determination is needed to play golf at Williams. The players participate in golf for Archbishop Williams and on their own free time. Coordination and skill are the tools needed to be a good golfer. This sport coached by Gino Marini at Williams has many outstanding players with talents which will lead them to making their goals come true.

The players are: Pamela Meany, Mark Kiley, Jim Crowley, Jim Doherty and Paul McCluskey.

Over The Rainbow

When all the world is a hopeless jumble and the raindrops tumble all around, heaven opens a magic lane.
When all the clouds darken up the skyway,
there's a rainbow highway to be found,
leading from your window pane,
to a place behind the sun,
just a step beyond the rain.

Somewhere over the rainbow
way up high,
there's a land that I heard of once in a lullaby.

Somewhere over the rainbow
skies are blue,
and the dreams that you dare to dream
really do come true.

Someday I'll wish upon a star
and wake up where the clouds are far behind me, where troubles melt like lemon drops, away, above the chimney tops
that's where you'll find me.

Somewhere over the rainbow
blue birds fly,
birds fly over the rainbow,
when then, oh why can't I?

Blount

Friendships are fragile things and require as much care in handling as any other fragile and precious thing.

Randolph S. Bourne

Friendship is the shadow of the evening, which strengthens with the setting sun of life.

La Fonte

Life is to be fortified by many friendships — to love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence.

Friendship

Friendship is something to value
it goes beyond words . . .
It's the touching and the hugging it's the act of giving, even when you feel like tugging.

It's the sorrows and the angers
the frustrations and the fears.
It's those joyful silly laughs and those sad melancholy tears.

Friends have something to share:
their love, their dreams and their ideas.
It's the exchange of feelings out in the clear blue air.

It's a sympathetic smile
which shows a friend cares.
It gives you a warm feeling which lasts for more than a while.

Friendship is sometimes like a rose,
as time goes by it opens up and the beauty soon unfolds.

A friend is very special and sometimes so very hard to find.
You cannot look for someone to be your friend,
but always keep a clear mind.

In order for friendship to exist one must;
lend an ear, be a good listener and take in all you hear . . . For a moment you have a buddy, but for a lifetime you you have a friend.

Heidi Charlton

I always thought that if I knew someone's name and said "Hi" to them we were good friends. If we dared to do more with them we were considered best of friends. But I have come to know the true value of friendship. Friends have to do more than go places together, they share secrets, work out problems, feelings, dreams, hopes, hates, fears, trusts, and loves, even at times tears. They have to listen to each other with patience and understanding. Like we've done so many times. I wish there were more like YOU.

Karen Carrabes

Senior's Prayer

Lord, as I climb yet another step on the ladder of life, let me stop and reflect about the steps below.

I think about my family, the special people in my life who love and accept me for who I am, even when who I am isn't very easy to get along with.

I think about my friends. It took a while to discover just who my friends were but I now feel I have found them and I am grateful for their love, care and their ability to listen. Most of all I am grateful for their presence to me.

I think about the beauty around me. The brightness of the daisy, the elegance and hope of the rose and the calm of the rainbow.

I think about the many people I have encountered in my life. Those whom I've loved and those I've found difficult to love and I thank You for all of them because I know that each was put in my path for a special purpose.

I think about me. The happy me, the sad me, the proud me, and the me who just wants to find a place to hide. Thank You for the me I am now and the me who is yet to come.

We the Class of 1981 would like to express our sincerest thanks to all the many friends and people who have touched our lives. We greatly appreciate their patience, hard work, encouragement, and the valuable time they have contributed to our yearbook:

Miller Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Percy

Michael Larabee

John Carrier

Sister Esther Plefka

The Faculty at Archbishop Williams and each classmate, because without your ideas and dreams we could never have had such a great four years at Williams.

A black and white photograph of a body of water at night. A full moon is visible in the upper right quadrant, and its light is reflected in a shimmering, vertical column down the center of the water. The water's surface is dark with subtle ripples.

Dreams

What will we do, where will we go, who will we be?

We try to peer into the long, unclear road that lies ahead, but we just can't see!

We try to imagine ourselves in years to come . . . Will we be who we expected, will we fulfill all our DREAMS!

Like the seasons, our lives
will change . . . our hopes, our ideas, and our childish schemes.

We look now at our friends, our teachers, at these people we feel so secure with . . . We just wish we didn't have to go

We remember all the things
we've done, all the times we've shared,
the high points as well as the low.

Life has so much more waiting for us . . . new hopes, new friends, new ideas, new schemes.

But one thing, we can never let go of . . . and this is our
